MEMORIES

That dimming memories may be brightened, joyous experiences recounted, and loyal friendships recalled, the editors of the 1952 edition of MEMORIES respectfully offer you this record of your years spent at Everett High School. If, when a decade has passed, the happenings which are herein recorded will have gained a slightly greater significance and meaning which your nearness to them now prevents your seeing, then we, these humble editors, shall feel that our efforts have not been in vain.

Faculty...

Class Message

Three years ago we entered Everett High School, filled with hopes and dreams, fostering silent ambitions and cradling within our breasts fond desires, and now we go forth, our hopes and dreams realized, our desires and ambitions one little step nearer completion.

As we gaze back in retrospect, the years just passed are one glorious yesterday, a yesterday that once was a tomorrow, distant and vague. Now that it is at hand, we regret that time has flown so fast and with all the fervor we can muster into our hearts, say with the poet, "Turn backward, turn backward, O Time, in thy Flight."

But that cannot be, we must go on. We must leave behind those things we have learned to hold dear and must fare forth in life's ever flowing stream. As we depart, let us pause for a moment and pay homage to the memories, sweet and poignant, that crowd within our breasts and well within our hearts. May they always be with us and may their presence guide us, so our every action will be but a reflection of the ideals that have been made part of us during our stay at Everett High School.

On Friday evening, February 29, the curtains opened on 'Spring Fever,' the hilarious Senior Class Play, performed under the direction of Mr. William Richmond.

It is June, the day before Commencement, when President Dixon of Brookfield College discovers that spring fever has violently attacked the campus. This is especially true of Mrs. Spangler's rooming-house, where three Brookfield's students live. Here are Ed Burns, chemistry major, busily inventing a substitute for dynamite, and Vic Lewis, artist, who is awaiting the model for his first professional job, while Howard Brant types frantically on a zoology theme for Professor Virgil Bean. Competing with Howard for the typewriter is Lou Herron, jaunty journalism major, who is also, incidentally, competing with the dynamite for Ed's affection. When Howard flunks zoology, and his maiden Aunt decides to 'vamp' the professor; when complications are brought in by two pretty co-eds, Vivian George and Anne Purcell, and by Anne's wealthy parents, the uproarious plot unfolds, involving mistaken identities, explosions, a death bed scene, and 'slugs.'

'Spring Fever' owes its success to the enthusiasm of the cast; and the spirited direction of Mr. Richmond.

Class History

The Class of 1952 began its notable career when it first assembled as Freshmen in the Albert N. Parlin Junior High school. Here was laid the foundation for the successful years which followed. To lead us in our embryo year, we chose Sheldon Gardner, Doris Ciampa, Donald Coburn, and Nancy DeSopha. In addition to furthering our scholastic achievements, many of us participated in extra-curricular activities, gaining an appreciation of music, athletics, debating, and dramatics, which proved invaluable in later years.

Memories of our Freshman year will always include outstanding assemblies, the gay cafeteria, 'Character,' and, of course, 'The Terrible Traffic Squad.'

Highlight of this supremely successful year came on Parlin Day, when sixteen of our most deserving members received the Parlin 'P.'

In September, the Class entered the portals of Everett High, proudly but with some trepidation. The tales we had heard of pranks played on unwitting Sophomores! And how were we ever going to find our way around?

But time passed, and we were pleased to see how the period of trial had made our Class a strong and united whole. We were the Class of 1952, and, although we didn't know just where, we were going places!

Our officers that year were Sheldon Gardner, Doris Powers, Jane Collins, and Joan Sparks; while Carol Alden, Audrey McCarthy, and James Caccivio represented the Sophomore Class in the School Council.

A notable achievement of this year was the introduction of the Sophomore Hop, the first such dance sponsored by Sophomores in twenty-five years.

Other memories include the 'Crimson Tide,' the production of 'Charlie's Aunt,' Junior Achievement and all its products, Gilbert and Sullivan's 'Gondoliers' and the introduction of 'Talent Show.'

By the time we reached our Junior year, we had become an integral part of Everett High School. This year's elections in the fall decreed a 'petticoat rule,' our officers being Maureen O'Keefe, President; Doris Powers, Vice-President; Jane Collins, Secretary; and Joanne Sparks, Treasurer. In the School Council, meanwhile, Carol Alden, James Caccivio, Paul Mastrocola, and James O'Keefe filled the Junior seats.

Class History

Having neither the responsibilities of the Seniors, nor the blissful ignorance of the Sophomores, we Juniors could turn our full attention to school activities. Such productions as 'The Yeomen of the Guard,' Drama Night, the Talent Show, and Italian Night owed much of their success to Juniors. Band, orchestra, Dramatic Club, Library Staff, Spanish Club, Italian Club, the Lyceum, and the sports field--all felt the enthusiasm and drive of the Juniors.

Zenith of the year came in May, with the long-anticipated Junior Prom. Eager hands transformed the gymnasium into fairyland for this one night. Brilliant color, swirling gowns, soft lights and music provided a never-to-be-forgotten finish to a never-to-be-forgotten year.

Came September, and we were Seniors, with our goal in view--graduation.

We chose as officers in this, our most important year, President, Frank Leo; Vice-President, Richard Vendola; Secretary, Jane Collins, and Treasurer, Joanne Sparks. James Caccivio and Paul Mastrocola served as Co-Chairmen of the School Council; Carol Alden Audrey McCarthy, and James O'Keefe were Council members.

For years we had awaited Senior Year. We found it to be everything we had anticipated. But who was prepared for the astounding rapidity with which it flew?

In the tumult of events, some will always stand out foremost in our memory whenever Senior Year or Everett High is mentioned.

There was the outstanding production of our Senior Class Play 'Spring Fever,' adjudged the best in years. This gay comedy was ably directed by Mr. William Richmond. Other sparkling events were Drama Night, Italian Night, the 'H. M. S. Pinafore,' and Talent Show.

We will also remember.....

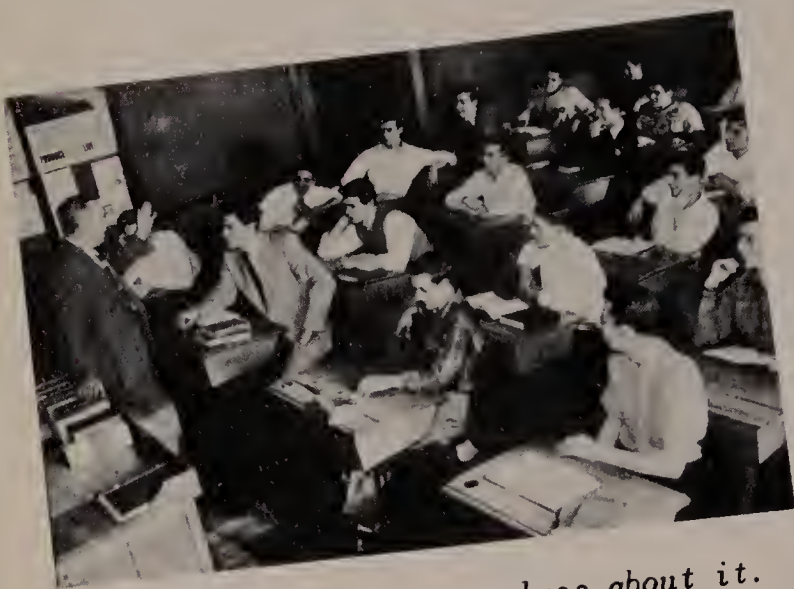

Cap and gown measurements....posing for graduation pictures---and wondering how to sign them....the confusion and mirth which went into preparing the Year Book...football and basketball games.....Canteen Dances.....Guidance conferences...assembly hall...and that night of nights, the Senior Prom.

The Class of 1952 is slowly filing out through the portals of Everett High. We know not what may lie ahead; we do know that our years here have been the happiest, most profitable, and most successful of our lives.

The School Council

Back Row: Gosselin, Napolitano, Terrio, Vacca, Barnes, Bond, Pagnini*

With genuine pride we present our School Council. This distinctive organization helps maintain right spirit and good citizenship, acts as a clearing house and forum for the consideration of extra-curricular problems; prepares and presents, under faculty guidance, an excellent series of assemblies.

One of the most important activities conducted by the School Council during the year is the Talent Show which is presented yearly by them in order to raise money for the Council Treasury. All expenses connected with our fine assembly programs is taken care of by this treasury.

This year the members participated in the fall convention of the Eastern Division of Massachusetts School Councils, which was held at the Beverly High School on November 17, 1951.

This representative body has given us invaluable service under the guidance of Mr. Charles Bleiler, Submaster and Miss Julia Gibbons, faculty advisor.

Conservation Group

The Conservation Club, under the instructive and capable guidance of Miss Margaret M. Noland, is by itself a distinctive organization. Although we associate merely lip-reading with this group, its primary purpose is to instruct the youth in our school, and other schools throughout the entire city, in the ways of conserving what hearing they now have.

Their weekly meeting is devoted to aiding and instructing those with hearing deficiencies to gain confidence to carry on their regular curriculum, acquiring sufficient skill in lip-reading to supplement faulty hearing, improving enunciation, and helping young men and women to regain the faith in themselves and others that they had lost due to some hearing defect.

There are only a few in this group but what they achieve is something that they can be proud of.

Swimming

Every Thursday from 2 P.M. to 2:45 P.M., the members of the Swimming Club gather at the Malden Y.M.C.A. pool for an afternoon of fun and enjoyment. Its purpose is to teach the girls of Everett High how to swim, and those that can swim may practice improving their technique. It runs from October to May, and you can be sure that the girls enjoy every minute of this healthful sport.

Orchestra

On Saturday, May 3, 1952, Everett was host to the North-Eastern Massachusetts Music Festival. This includes fifty-four cities and towns of Middlesex County and thirty-four from Essex County or a grand total of thirty-five hundred Junior and Senior High School students participating in bands, orchestras, glee clubs, and various choral groups. This festival comes at the time when Everett is celebrating its 60th anniversary of being incorporated as a city and is under the sponsorship of the Everett School Department and Everett Chamber of Commerce.

Many outstanding music educators were present including Dr. Warren Freeman, Dean of Boston University College of Music; Malcolm Holmes, Dean of the New England Conservatory of Music; Dr. Cyrus Thompson of Lowell State Teacher's College; Mr. Frederick Mirliani of Holy Cross College; and George Reynolds of the University of New Hampshire.

Buses started to pour into Everett at daybreak for auditions which started at 8:00 A.M. and ended at 12:00 noon. Following lunch, which was served to the group, combined choruses led by the directors of some forty schools put on a performance long to be remembered. Following this concert, a grand parade was held, starting at Glendale Park, touring the city and proceeding to the Everett Memorial Stadium. At the stadium the entire confines of the field was a mass of musicians participating in one huge band concert. This was brought to a conclusion by the combined bands rendering the National Anthem under the direction of our own Otavio J. DeVivo, Director of Music of the Everett School Department and Host chairman for this thrilling exhibition.

The Italian Club

*Italian Club Officers: Mr. DeRubeis, Faculty Advisor, A. Brogna, President
C. DeVito, Vice President, F. Napolitano, Secretary
M. Brogna, Treasurer.*

Since its introduction in 1937, the Italian Club has progressed notably in furthering its objective, to complement Italian Classes.

Under the direction of its founder, and present director, Mr. Victor DeRubeis, the annual Italian Night was held at the Rockwood Auditorium on April 4, at which time the club presented two plays. 'Chi Non Prova Non Crede,' in which there was an entire cast of seniors, was a sparkling success.

On January 14, the 1952 Italian Club held a Parent's Night at the Everett High School, which provided entertainment and a luncheon for the parents.

Lyceum

Front Row: Cohen, Yassin, Mr. Mahan, Gardner, Sciola
Back Row: Cohen, Dribben, McLaughlin, Katz

Hours and days spent in the Lyceum will be in the memory of all the students who participated in this activity. The Lyceum Club is founded upon the principles of debating and furthering the ability to stand on ones feet in public and express ones opinions and beliefs.

Every year the Lyceum Club presents an assembly consisting of members of the organization in an open discussion of every day problems. In March, the outstanding members will participate against each other for the prizes in the Boston College Prize Debate. The topic under discussion will be the national question: "That All American Citizens Should Be Subject to Conscription for Essential Service in Time of War"

During the year the group took part in debates with Chelsea, Revere, Brown and Nichols and Waltham High Schools. High School Tournaments held by Boston University and Northeastern University were entered by our group.

Before the end of the year, the best representative of the club will be picked and sent to Colby College in Maine as an entrant in the Montgomery Prize Speaking Contest.

Our many thanks to our very genial Faculty Advisor, Mr. James Mahan.

Senior Dramatics Club

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mr. John McLaughlin, has again proven itself to be one of the finest clubs of its type in New England.

The purposes of the Club are twofold; first, to develop the personalities of its members through the poise acquired with stage technique; and second, to learn to appreciate the Drama. Stage technique is developed through exercises, dialogues, and pantomime skits performed on the stage. Plays are presented in assemblies, and before community groups. Through the use of a recording machine, members are able to record their voices, that they may correct faulty enunciation and improve tone quality. Complementing these activities, Mr. McLaughlin presents interesting lectures on stage technique.

Most outstanding of the club's activities was Drama Night, January 11, 1952, when an appreciative audience witnessed three one-act plays, 'Red Carnations,' a comedy, 'Undertow,' a mystery, and 'The Widow's Dream,' an old-fashioned melodrama. A capable cast under the inspired direction of Mr. McLaughlin made this a truly memorable performance.

Junior Dramatics Club

The next item on the Club's program will be the Massachusetts Drama Festival. The Everett High School's Dramatic Club has compiled an outstanding record of success in these festivals; the present club is determined to live up to this high standard.

The Senior Class can indeed be proud of its Dramatic Club and grateful to Mr. McLaughlin, who has made the club what it is.

The Spanish Club

Back row: Bleet, Leuci, Rutstein, Kaufman, Ullian, Lifson, Schwartz

The Spanish Club, whose aim is to become better acquainted with the Spanish speaking countries, customs, and people, organized in the Fall and elected as officers the following: Mary Desmond, President; Shirley Greenberg, Vice-President; Maybelle Hauser, Secretary; Barbara Turner, Treasurer. After this meeting some of the members of the club visited the Hapsburg Exhibition at the Museum of Fine Arts.

Next on the program was the visit of all the Senior members of the club to the Jose' Greco Ballet in Boston. Those who attended enjoyed themselves thoroughly and were very pleased to receive the autograph of Senor Greco.

The other meetings consisted of a Christmas Party, a Valentine Party, a March meeting dedicated to Mexican pictures of a bull-fight, our April meeting which was used to celebrate Pan-American Day, and a Spring party honoring the Seniors of the club.

The success of the club was largely due to the unlimited effort of Miss Helen Agbay with whom we spent many enjoyable meetings. May we say to you, Miss Agbay 'Muchas Gracias.'

We hope that the future Spanish Club will have as large a membership and enjoy the activities of the club as much as we have.

Football

The season of 1951 followed the same pattern as that of the past few seasons, that is, very disappointing. We had looked forward to a pretty fair season after reports of returning veterans and the addition of the freshmen stars of the Parlin School, but we were doomed to have a rude awakening. The over-all picture of the season was two wins - two ties - and five losses.

Class A champions, Weymouth, gave us a very rude jolt in our initial start to the tune of 19 to 7. Everett was spotty at times and at other times they looked like champs. Captain Jimmy Higgins, Formosi, and Manganaro were the standouts for our lost cause.

Somerville was next, and this was a thriller with the crimson going down to a glorious defeat 19 to 13. The game ended with our warriors on their four yard line. Again it was Higgins, with Leo and Caiazzo doing the most of the ground gaining.

On the following week-end, we met the Witches from Salem. At the end of the first half, this looked as if we were out to gain our first win as we left the field at the end of the half with a 12 to 0 lead. We were not expecting the Salem team to come back and score two touchdowns right away, but they did just that and tied up the game at 12-12. From there on it was only the great defensive play of Giggle, Gibson, and Leo that saved the day for the Crimson Tide.

Three cheers! Everett wins! The Gildea coached boys swung into a single wing attack and completely fooled a very weak Lynn Classical team. Everett's running attack was geared on high with Rossetti scoring on a twenty-two run, Christoforo on a forty yard scamper, Leo for a ten yard jaunt and Mattuchio passed to Manganaro for the fourth and last.

Score: Everett 24 - Lynn Classical 0.

Next came unbeaten Medford. The Mustangs have really been down the past few years but they are on the way up again. They showed us no mercy and once again we left the stadium on the short end of a 28 - 7 score.

The Revere Beachcombers were next, and they looked quite potent in the first half as they took a six to nothing lead. It was only the reserve strength of our valliant lads that broke the Revere spirit and we went onto victory in the second half by the score of 21 - 0. Again Everett's stars were Leo, Caiazzo, Rossetti, and Higgins.

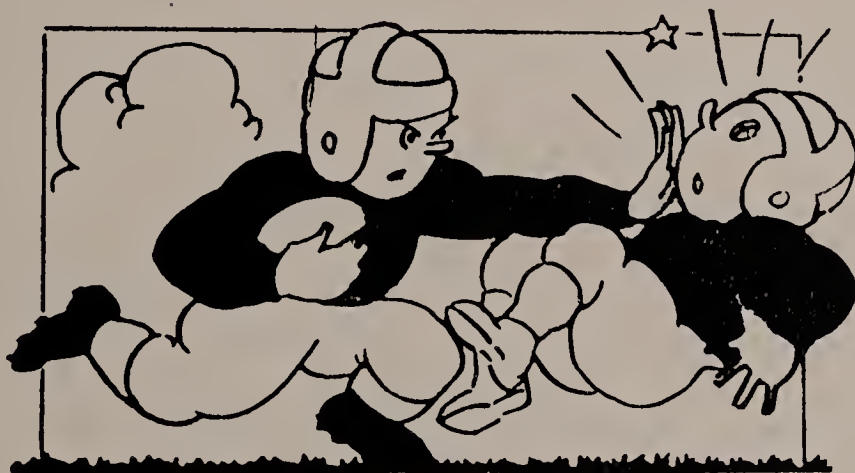

How we looked forward to our ancient rival, undefeated Malden. This would be our day of sweet revenge. This was the 52nd meeting between the two teams and anything could happen. It did! Malden put on a blistering attack and drove our boys dizzy with their passing, smashing, and running. The final score read Malden 54 - 12. Nuf sed.

The club next paid a visit to Brockton to meet an underrated shoe city eleven. They had hither to shown little or nothing, but evidently saved it all for us, as again we went down to a stunning 19 - 7 defeat.

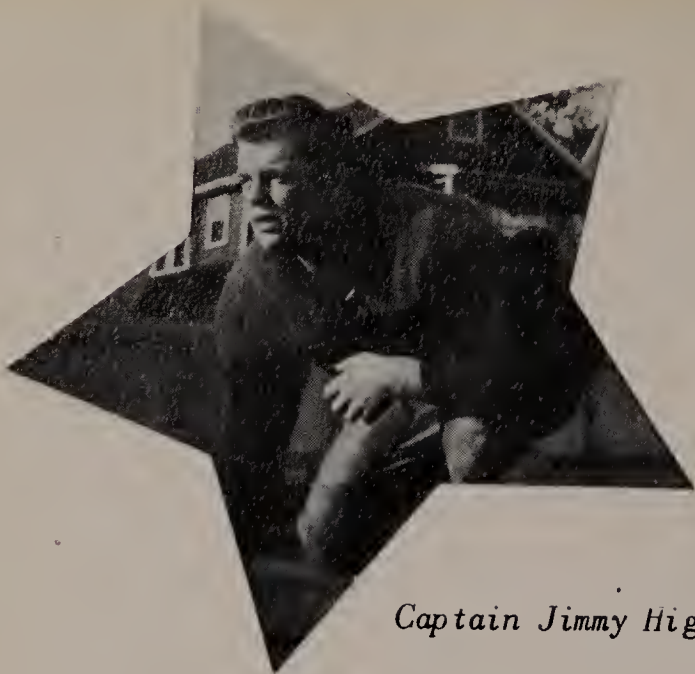

On Thanksgiving Day, Everett and Chelsea! The natural rivalry of these two teams is what cranberry is to turkey.

Before a capacity crowd, Chelsea scored early in the game to take a 6 - 0 lead. But our lads rose up in their wrath and struck back as the second half got under way. Caiazzo took the kick-off back to their forty-five yard line, Leo went to the thirty-five and Caiazzo went for fifteen, Leo for ten, and finally Leo went over to tie the game up six all. From herein, the game see-sawed back and forth as the clock ran out with the game tied up.

Congratulations to you seniors who did well in your efforts. Your cour- is unquestioned and win or lose, we seniors appreciate your spirit of fair play and loyalty. Tackle life as you have tackled on the foot ball field and your future is bound to be a success.

Starting the season with a very green and inexperienced team, Everett lost its first game to Medford, the eventual league winner. This was followed by another loss, this time to Quincy. Our first victory came to us against Chelsea, which was followed at a later date by another win thus making it thirteen out of fourteen games we have won from them in the past seven years. Perhaps we should play them every night in the week!!

Honors were even, with one win each. Revere was a double victory for the boys in crimson. Up to now the taste of victory had been sweet, even if it had only been a sip. The cup was snatched from our lips and shattered in victories over us by both Malden and Somerville.

Captain Bill Brownlie played good basketball for the club as did "Record" McLean, Sapienza and Al. Caiazzo. McLean was high scorer of the club and also had the honor and distinction of being chosen for the Greater Boston League All Star Team.

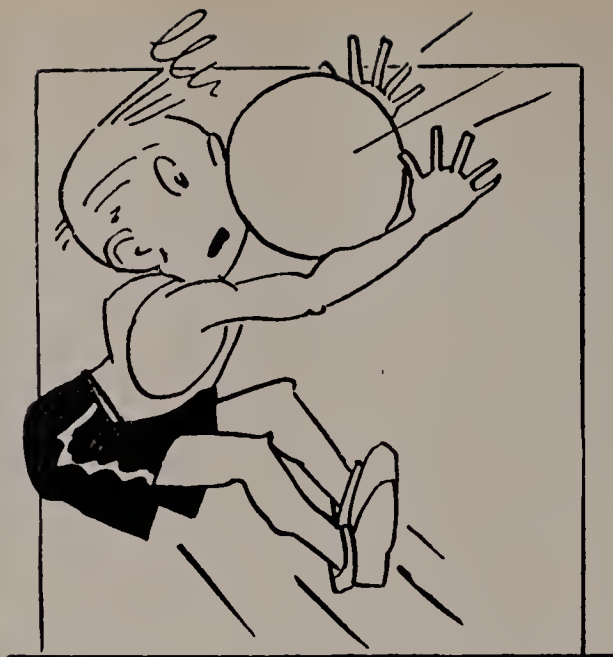

Too much cannot be said for Coach Lennox Putnam for moulding this group into a promising combination for the future.

Track

"They'd Run A Mile For A Record."

Under the leadership of coach John Killian, Everett High's Track Squad looks forward to a successful season.

Captain Robert Johnstone will compete in the high jump, 220-yard dash and relay team of four. Robert McLean will run on the relay team event and the 100-yard dash. Veterans John Cafazzo and Lawrence Ameroso will represent Everett's 440-yard event. In the 100-yard dash and relay team, William Perkins and John Giggie will be the added strength with Johnstone and McLean to make valuable points for Everett High. The blonde on the team is David Pierson who will continue to run the half-miler. James Higgins and Anthony Sorrento will represent Everett in the field events. A promising Junior is John Northrup who will be Everett's best miler.

The track squad lost the service of Robert Chase, Sophomore mile runner, when he moved to North Carolina.

Everett High School Track is looking forward to a successful season with the return of so many veterans. The squad will have meets with Revere, Chelsea, Somerville, and Lynn Classical, Everett will be represented in the Belmont Relays and at Amherst the University of Massachusetts High School Relay Carnival.

The Junior Prom was held at the Everett High School Gymn on Friday night, May 9, 1952.

The yearly task of decorating the gym was completed by the chosen Junior Prom Committee. During this gala event, the king and queen were chosen by the judges. The evening was filled with dancing and music, all ending with the Grand March.

Invited Guests were as follows: Mr. De Rubeis, City dignitaries, and School officials.

The prom with the co-operation of all proved to be a gay, successful event.

Junior Class History

In September of 1949 the Class of 1953 started on its high school career as freshmen at the Parlin Junior High School under the able leadership of Audrey Clark, president; Salvatore Napolitano, vice-president; Elena Rocco, secretary; and Barbara Moores, treasurer. These officers were elected by the homeroom presidents and comprised the governing body known as the P. C. G. A. Many social, sporting, and educational activities were enjoyed under the leadership.

Parlin Day was the climax of the freshman year. A large number of freshmen were presented with the Parlin P, a symbol of their leadership in scholastics, sports, and citizenship.

The next year found the Class of 1953 as sophomores in the Senior High School. After we had finished looking for the proverbial elevators and other such things told to us by the seniors, the following officers were chosen to represent the sophomore class: Carol Goselin, president; Doreen Gardner, vice-president; Elena Rocco, secretary; and Barbara Moores, treasurer. The School Council members were Norma Barnes, Audrey Clark, and Ann Middleton.

The sophomores participated most energetically in sports, debating, dramatics, and music, and sometimes in mischief.

September, 1951 found the members of the Class of '53' a step higher on their high school ladder. As officers representing the Junior Class the following were chosen: Janet Baker, president; Jean Harding, vice-president; Lorraine Porriello, secretary; and Barbara Moores, treasurer. Elected to the School Council were Norma Barnes, Carol Goselin, Florence Napolitano, and Katherine Ferrio.

The Junior Class presented many fine athletes to the world of sports. Their skills displayed on the gridiron, diamond, court, and cinder path were enjoyed by all.

Then came the great event. The Junior Prom in May proved to be an overwhelming success. But then what prom wouldn't be a success with a prom committee like ours! It was a glorious climax for our Junior year.

Now, we, the members of the Junior Class, look forward with great anticipation to the highest rung in our high school ladder. A senior! Then we shall write the glorious and eventful finale of our four wonderful years as high school students.
